The Book of Jedi

Chapter 1: The Force

Before the Beginning, and Forever, there is THE FORCE.

The Force is All, the totality of all existence.

There is nothing except The Force manifesting in Its multitude of forms.

The Force is what created and sustains all universes, and all within each universe.

The Force is what gives life to all animated forms.

The Book of Jedi

The Force is what allows you to perceive and understand.

All life impulses flow from The Force.

All Matter & Energy exist as condensations of The Force.

All Space and All Time exist only because The Force manifests to create them thus.

The Book of Jedi

Chapter 2: The Jedi and The Force

The innate intelligence of The Force seeks its highest expression as consciousness, the awareness of being aware, a state that either exists and manifests in the present moment or not.

The Jedi is fundamentally concerned with this moment, the present moment, the NOW - for only in this present moment may consciousness exist.

The Jedi fulfills his purpose by allowing The Force to manifest through his BEingness as completely as he is able.

The Book of Jedi

The Force will use all life forms willing to allow it to expand its manifested expression. None are blocked, and no past or future actions prevent anyone from being the potential vehicle through which The Force may seek manifestation in the present moment.

The Book of Jedi

Chapter 3: The Force and Its Expression

Universes are created by The Force so that The Force may experience itself in newly invented manifested forms.

You, Jedi, are in training to be the highest expression of The Force in this and all universes.

In every present moment The Force is always seeking its highest expression through a single conscious BEing of its choosing. No one will say who or what this BEing is, but as a Jedi you will come to recognize the one through whom The Force is operating in every present moment. Inwardly you will know with conviction who this BEing is, but only to the extent that you have learned the ways of The Force. Your training is in preparation for the moment when you will be the newly selected highest manifestation of The Force. This gift is conferred upon all by The Force in due time as the qualities of mastership and alignment with The Force are attained within each individual conscious BEing.

The Book of Jedi

Chapter 4: The Path of the Jedi

The Path of the Jedi is one of service to The Force. But this service is not one of resignation; as a conscious BEing The Force grants you the power to choose what manifestations shall be created next within your personal sphere of influence - as such you are a co-creator of reality. It is only by your choices and thoughts that The Force is able to manifest through you. Yet there is an over-riding objective that The Force has, and that is to seek ever more magnificent expression of Itself. To the extent that your thoughts are retrograde in this regard, The Force will not flow through you.

The Book of Jedi

Until the point that a Jedi becomes The Force completely by BEing its Chosen One, his mission is always to bring himself into greater alignment with The Force.

Once a Jedi becomes The Force completely, his will and the will of The Force are one and the same.

The Book of Jedi

Chapter 5: The Training of a Jedi

The process of alignment with The Force is as follows:

1) Before the process begins a person will not know of The Force, nor will he know that there is something for him to learn.

2) Even after becoming conscious, a person will scarcely have the awareness to ask the question, "What Am I?" - the answer seems obvious, "me", which is correct, but the full meaning of what can be meant and understood by that answer is an individual experience.

3) The journey begins only when the conscious one asks sincerely, "What Am I?" and simultaneously realizes that the answer is not completely known. Only then can learning begin.

4) When the Initiate is ready the Master will appear. The Masters of the various levels all work in harmony, aligned by The Force. The opening within the consciousness of the Initiate allows any of these Masters to offer the seed thoughts that will manifest as a changed consciousness within the Initiate as he is lifted, step-by-step, in preparation to become a Jedi.

5) As the thought seeds are planted, one-by-one, step-by-step, the Master is gently awakening new awarenesses within the Initiate. The major milestone comes when the Initiate experiences and consciously realizes that The Force has guided his actions in some small way. This awakening is the goal of all of the past preparations that have brought the Initiate to this singular point of recognition.

6) The Initiate will quickly realize that additional training is required if he is to master the art of allowing his consciousness to open in receptivity to The Force, and to remove the barriers which prevent him from expanding and accelerating this subtle inner surrendering to a partnership with The Force.

7) At this moment the teachability of the Initiate expands considerably; he is willing and able to accept stricter discipline, harsher training, and ever higher standards for himself. The Initiate will seek a Master and become his Padawan Learner. The Master will deliver his instruction according to the level of ability of his Padawan.

The Book of Jedi

8) The next phase of training is the most dangerous for the Padawan, for the most receptive will quickly master all that they can see and understand, they will forget that they do not yet know what they do not know; this arrogance can be very costly, and perhaps the greatest challenge of the Master is to ensure that the Padawan always knows that there is more to learn. For this reason it is imperative that the Master recognize his own limitations and if a Padawan ever exceeds his masters ability to inspire, he must quickly be given a new master who can reveal to the Padawan that there is still so much that must be learned.

9) Very few Jedi, even very few of those who have been awarded the title of Jedi Masters, have ever truly reached the pinnacle of what The Force is offering to all life - the opportunity to become the focused manifestation through which The Force operates to experience itself as its next ultimate manifestation. Those few who have experienced this divine mantle of grace need never tell others of it; those who have experienced it will recognize each other; and those who have not will only know that The Force is 'unusually strong' with them. The mystery of this selection process and the true preparations required to receive this mantle are known only to those who have experienced it.

Chapter 6: The Dark Side of The Force

Among the Jedi it is known that The Force exists in a state of oscillation, an ebb and flow, in its manifested forms. To experience itself as the supreme qualities of goodness it must contrast itself by manifesting the supreme qualities of what it is not. The Force is the totality of all, embracing all of its parts; yet within universes of duality The Force necessarily manifests as the two sides of itself. Thus there is Always The Force, yet there is also The Dark Side.

The ebb and flow of The Force is the constant playing out of the divine drama wherein The Dark Side emerges and grows and seeks to dominate and control all - to which The Force will awaken its chosen few who will counter these dark stirrings.

In the widening oscillations, The Force, manifesting as The Dark Side delights in its creation of ever more terrible monstrosities, ever more subtle manipulations, ever more diabolical machinations. These monstrosities will always come as more subtle, more invisible, more undetectable attacks - which the Jedi will be challenged to detect and counter. At times the Jedi will swiftly detect and shine the lights of honesty, justice, and liberty that will dispel the darkness. At other times the Jedi will be unaware of what is happening, and The Force may even allow many of its chosen ones to fall. But The Force cannot be extinguished, the Jedi have no need to ever fear, for The Force will always re-emerge to counter the machinations of The Dark Side; and it will always be victorious. With each conflict The Force discovers itself to be even more amazing than it has ever realized Itself to be.

It is known by the Jedi that The Dark Side will make offerings to its chosen Sith. It will offer manipulated understandings and perspectives which deceive them into believing that there are certain rewards for their actions. It is unknown to the Jedi what these may be, though they are almost certainly superficial and temporary, as past history has borne out. It would be expected that the Dark Side would manifest in such a way that disbelief would seem impossible.

In all known past history, The Dark Side has only ever chosen those individuals who have been unable to resolve the pains, fears, losses, angers, hatreds, and sufferings of the past. The Jedi's guard against The Dark Side is to forgive - forgiving oneself of what has been done, and forgiving others of what they have done. Only in a state of having clean hands and a clean heart may the Jedi walk safely.

The first entrance of The Dark Side is always to capitalize on a character weakness. Once any person is found to have done any action that does not align with his nature, he is compromised until the time when he acknowledges what has been done.

Chapter 7: The Jedi Code

Each Jedi becomes a Law unto himself. A Jedi's relationship with The Force is personal, sacrosanct, and cannot be judged by anyone but himself. He must decide for himself what rules he will abide by, and what role he will play within the divine drama of The Force expressing itself in manifested form.

Yet among those who have ever been chosen by The Force as its focused vehicle for expression there are commonalities.

A young Jedi aspiring to the pinnacle of his purpose of BEing animated fully by The Force will take careful note of these points and seek to incorporate them within his life and BEingness:

The Book of Jedi

0) A Jedi constantly seeks alignment with The Force.

1) A Jedi will set aside his emotions and act from the calm peace that The Force furnishes him.

2) A Jedi constantly strives for ever deeper levels of honesty and integrated understanding of The Force in all of its manifestations, always recognizing that there is more to learn.

3) A Jedi's passion is for The Force only, and thus he is free to manifest as an expression of the serenity and activity of The Force.

4) A Jedi recognizes with wonder and marvel as the divine drama of The Force playing out in the totality of its manifested form.

5) A Jedi has been shown by The Force that there is no death, that awareness continues after being translated from {The Force which animates a body} back into {The Primordial Force from which all manifestations arises}.

This code has been captured as a mantra through which alignment and incorporation of the Code into a Jedi's BEingness may be accomplished. The mantra is thus:

Emotion, yet peace.
Ignorance, yet knowledge.
Passion, yet serenity.
Chaos, yet harmony.
Death, yet the Force.

Appendix A: The Masterless Padawan

It has been foreseen that there will be times when only The Book of Jedi will be available for a Padawan or to study from. At times the Jedi order will be spread thin. And for those times The Force has directed that this manuscript also include instructions for the Neophyte Padawan.

Perhaps you are one such Padawan, or perhaps The Force has only just begun to stir within you. If so, then today is the day that your training begins or advances.

The Book of Jedi

Of course, as you master this segment of your training, you may also look back with fond memories to see how far you have come.

What follows is the condensation of the lessons and exercises that have been used by many Jedi Masters as they have trained those that have qualified for instruction.

The Book of Jedi

Introduction: Mastering The One Basic Principle

It is known to all Jedi, that all younglings wish to know the secrets, the advanced material. In honesty there is no advanced material, there is only the basic material. What then do the more advanced students study, and why is that not shared with those just beginning? Advanced students are still studying the basic material, only now they study it with a base of experience so that the nuance and finer details can be mastered as well.

In other pursuits, especially intellectual persuits such as mathematics for example, there will be one basic throughout. In the case of mathematics that basic principle is "How can I use abstractions and symbols to most efficiently resolve real world situations?" Counting and accounting were developed first as a means to measure one's possessions; over time more and more situations and challenges were resolved with the kinds of thought processes that grew out of the basic principle.

The one and only basic principle that the Jedi seeks to master is "How can I align myself with The Force?" The advanced material details the arts for mastering the most subtle and fine interactions a person has with The Force. This will all be meaningless until a Jedi can first feel and experience The Force flowing through him.

Thus we will always be returning to this one and only most fundamental basic: "How can I align myself more closely with The Force?"

From experience, it is known that The Jedi Code, The Disciplines and Exercises, The Lessons from a Master Jedi, are all focused on this one goal. The graced movements, the telekinetic, the reading of thoughts and emotions, sensing the rippled disturbances or euphoric joys of The Force, and many other abilities all come in time to those who align themselves with The Force.

The Book of Jedi

Lesson 1: Who Do You Listen to? Recognizing The Master [Omitted in unregistered edition]

It is known among the Jedi, that a Neophyte Padawan will often engage in his training without actually understanding how to be effective in his training.

The Master knows what result he seeks to bring about in his Padawan, and he will offer stimulations which will bring about that result.

The Book of Jedi

The Jedi are always encouraged to seek out a master who...

The Book of Jedi

Lesson 2: Are You Willing to Learn and Change?

Recognize that as you approach the Master, there is a delicate dance to see if a match between the two of you exists. If you have done your due diligence, you will have selected a Master that you believe will be able to teach you.

He will be looking to see if you are worth teaching. How will he judge you? First he will listen to The Force: what does it reveal to him about you and the future?

His choice will be effortless, and frankly, there is little that you can do to influence it. Yet of all the things that you might do, there is one thing that will have significance in this regard:

You must show The Force itself that you are 'teachable'. The Force will then guide you to the master who will be able to teach you.

What does it mean to be 'teachable'? It means that you are willing to be wrong about what you believe to be true. It means you are willing to accept the disciplines.

It means you are willing to offer up the time and energy, and in some cases the tangible resources, required to learn what the Master will teach you. What are you willing to give up?

Recognize that if you wish to learn a new way, you must be willing to give up the old way.

The Book of Jedi

The Padawan who must be shown in great detail why the new way will be better, the Padawan who is unwilling to try it and see for himself even as an experiment, will have little success, and the Master will do what is best for both himself and the Padawan, by simply saying, "You are not yet teachable enough to justify the use of my time and energy.  You are welcome to come back when you are willing to learn and willing to accept change."

If you show The Force that you are teachable, then The Force will show the Master what it is that you can be given.

The Book of Jedi

Lesson 3: The Inner Preparations

Before anything can happen outwardly, certain inner preparations must be made. Once the inner preparations are made, swift and dramatic outward changes follow.

The inner preparations that are necessary to affect any particular outer manifestation are unique to that outer manifestation.

Many Young Jedi crave to know 'How', yet there is no 'How'. The 'How' takes care of itself once the inner preparations have been made. It is much like a floodgate; the water builds invisibly on the far side, unseen to all; but then suddenly the pressure is too much and the gate will snap open and a tsunami of water ushers forth into the manifested reality.

This slow, invisible building of inner preparations is unknown to many, and when the results do burst forth few will understand that it was the inner preparations that allowed the results to manifest.

Do not be surprised when you see that so much of what is done in your training is seemingly insignificant or seemingly non-sensical. Your master is offering you stimulations which will result in the building of the inner preparations that are necessary to bring you to the point that you must be at before the next outward manifestation can burst forth.

The Book of Jedi

The specific activities, actions, skills, routes, paths, vehicles, and tools are all insignificant in comparison to the the reason 'WHY' the objective is desirable. Desirable objectives will fill the young Jedi with wonder, awe, gratitude, humility, and excitement - these wonderful feelings are the result of The Force flowing powerfully within him. The Force flows powerfully in those whom have aligned their thoughts with the objectives of The Force: The manifestation of its qualities through individual consciousness. This is accomplished simply by contemplating on the objective and exploring its aspects and potentialities and allowing The Force to reveal more and more of "What would be good to manifest".

Lesson 6: Experiencing The Force [Omitted in unregistered edition]

There are literally millions of exercises listed in the Jedi Archives that have been used effectively by Jedi Masters throughout history to bring a Padawan to the point of consciously feeling The Force flowing through himself.

I will be offering you a sampling of these, specifically I am offering you the top 12 most effective, and then a few others to offer you a sense of the diversity of what the Jedi Masters have done to assist their Padawan through this all important first step into conscious experience with The Force.

0) Most obviously, simply observe and interact with those in whom The Force is active. Beyond all techniques, this will always be the most important and most effective at awakening these awarenesses within the Padawan.

1) Appreciate Something Beautiful.

2) Contemplate on times past and future of when you have participated in the qualities of The Force (Honest, Just, Graceful, Benevolent, Merciful, Compassionate, Patient, Kind, Noble, Integrated, Understanding, Masterful, Dynamic, Invincible, Gentle, Unshakable, Certain, and Euphoric).

The diversity of exercises and techniques for bringing about a conscious experience of The Force really are astounding. In all cases, an increased awareness of The Force is gained by attention being placed upon some aspect of the workings of The Force within the Padawan or within others.

The Book of Jedi

Lesson 7: Allowing The Force to Reveal Something to You

Perhaps the greatest gift The Force gives to its manifestations are subtle inner communications - visions of possibility. These arise within the mind of a Jedi effortlessly; they are a continuous stream of inspiration. The process of awakening these insights is simple; it can be accomplished by anyone. The process results in increased neural pathways between the left and right hemispheres of the brain. The Force makes contact with the aspects of consciousness which are represented in manifested form as the right hemisphere of the brain - these subtle impulses and visions must then be translated into an analytical format for perception and contemplation within those faculties of consciousness as represented in manifested form by the left hemisphere of the brain. Contemplating upon what one wants naturally induces The Force to offer visions of possibility. But this can be accelerated and expanded with a simple technique. For any vision worth pursuing, consider that if manifesting that vision was completely up to you, and if you had the full sanction of The Force to manifest it, how would you go about it.

In general, thinking about 'How' to do something can result in blockages to the flow of The Force; however in this case, once you have created the hypothetical of "it shall be done, and I shall be the one to make it happen" at that point working out 'how' such a vision might be made manifest is highly creative and will have no blockages. The Force will come in and show you step-by-step everything that must happen for the vision to manifest along one or more particular routes. Realize however that The Force can manifest any vision directly, the role of the Jedi is to do his part in the process, and the interaction of The Force with the Jedi will determine what must be done by the Jedi in order for the vision to manifest. As the Jedi chooses visions which are in greater alignment with The Force and what it desires for its expanding manifestation, the visions that come to the Jedi will manifest faster and easier and with less action than the Jedi ever anticipated. However, the Jedi will always be expected to contribute his part to the manifesting process as determined by the relationship between The Force and the Jedi.

So the specific technique is to conceive of a vision which fills you with joy, and to then discover one of the infinite possible routes that The Force could direct you in the realization of that vision. Map out each step and each action that would need to be executed. See the milestones that would be crossed. At some point in this process The Force will bring you a flood of insights into that particular route.

Once the plan is revealed to you, it will be up to you whether or not you will execute it; and behold as The Force brings you other aspects that you were not previously prepared to anticipate. All of which will be for your benefit, either clarifying what it is that you actually desire, or leading you on a route of experience that will prepare you for other things yet to come. You may accept your experience with complete confidence that The Force is guiding you for your ultimate happiness and the fulfillment of the purpose for which you were manifested out from The Primordial Force.

The Book of Jedi

Lesson 8: Expanding the Vehicle of The Force [Omitted in unregistered edition]

The Jedi collectively are the chosen vehicles of The Force in this and all universes. Each has been awakened by The Force into consciousness, and each has been stirred to seek out ways to more closely align themselves with The Force.

The supreme manifestation of The Force will be...

All else that a Jedi may do are simply variations and refinements on these points.

Appendix B: Recognizing The Dark Side

It is vital to the mission of the Jedi that all come to recognize the manifestations of The Dark Side.

The Sith are constantly evolving in their subtlety, though they will repeat any plans, actions, or gambits which they believe will work again.

Recognize then that no list showing what the Sith may do will ever be complete, any version of "The Book of Sith" that you come across will ever be complete or the most current.

The Book of Jedi

It is known that versions of "The Book of Sith" have been created specifically to infect the minds of the Jedi with false or half-truth ideas. If at any time you come across a version of "The Book of Sith" and you feel compelled to read it, it is suggested that you read it in the presence of another Jedi who will not read it, and against whom you may contrast the points. Likely the Book of Sith will introduce concepts which cast doubt on the completeness of The Book of Jedi or which offer plausible models/scenarios which cannot be tested and verified, models of the universe that justify their destructive actions.

It is always unclear as to what the understanding and value system of the Sith actually is, however it seems likely that the Sith are most clearly focused on the destruction of consciousness - whatever story or model or scenario which they actually believe in, their actions thus far have always aligned with this goal, and so it has been inferred that "The Destruction of Consciousness" is the primary objective of the Sith.

Observe for yourself and be your own judge.

Here are some of the many gambits that the Sith have executed in the past:

1) Gain Political Power so that the use of physical violence can be wielded against those who become conscious.

2) Leverage the masses of aware but not yet conscious individuals as a voting base within a democracy.

3) Attempt to subvert any constitutionally limited republic into a democracy into a dictatorship disguised as a democracy.

The Book of Jedi

4) Seek reasons to justify the use of initiatory violence and threat of initiatory violence against the innocent.

5) Engineer problems where none previously existed, cultivate the desired reaction to those problems, and then use that reaction and emotional irrationality to sell an unconscious population on actions or policies which are to their detriment though they seem justified at the moment.

6) Always recast any dialog of good vs evil into some other form such as red vs blue, or rich vs poor, or race vs race.

7) When identified retreat; when cornered attack with deadly force; when beaten pose as a manipulated victim or one who was unaware of what he has done; when about to be found guilty at a trial offer a convincingly sincere apology and willingly accept any punishment save death (knowing that any punishment other than death can be escaped or endured).

8) Create situations where the innocent are manipulated into accepting false guilt for negative outcomes which where not really under their control.

9) Leverage an individual's fears, pains, guilts (real or false), angers, & hatreds to manipulate him into committing further actions in violation of his personal ideals.

10) Offer ever increasing benefits for those who violate themselves for the Sith cause, and if ever one attempts to leave or do less, impose crushing penalties and/or death and/or fates worse than death.

The Book of Jedi

11) Strive for the creation of penalties and tortures that are THE MOST ruthless, destructive, diabolical, and painful that can be created. Never use or reveal the supreme penalties unless absolutely necessary and ensure that death is delivered immediately to all who experience them; prevent all from comprehending the ultimate evils. Use the minimum level of ruthlessness which is necessary to shock the comprehension of the one to be manipulated or broken.

12) Pose as the captive of an enemy who is actually in your service.

13) Always be aware of the largest objective and all milestones and sub-objectives; in any situation maximize action towards all objectives.

14) In any majority vote, incorporate more and more of your agenda until the vote passes by the narrowest margin possible; if there is a vote margin, it means there are more agenda advancing aspects which can be added to the bill at the 'expense' of the margin (which is worth nothing provided the bill passes).

15) Use sympathy and desperation to manipulate the naive and innocent into your support and political elevation.

16) Identify those Jedi that can be turned to The Dark Side, select from among them the most powerful as the candidates for apprenticeship.

17) Gain trust, and know all.

18) Create justification for the construction of an invincible army or an unstoppable weapon.

19) Create justification for the use of that invincible army or unstoppable weapon against the innocent, especially conscious life and specifically the Jedi and any organizations that oppose the Sith.

20) Use truth as a crushing mental/emotional shock to destabilize those to be manipulated.

21) Use displays of violent power to crush the innocent into submission.

22) Deliver a swift and crushing blow to ones enemies that staggers the mind/emotions of all who witness it or manage to survive it - drive them into hopelessness and isolation or surrender.

23) Maximize the competence of the aware but unconscious populations that serve you, while preventing them from actually emerging as conscious - do this by keeping them in a continuous state of fear or desperation from unknown enemies or financial pressures - and simultaneously demanding continuous action and engagement of their minds on the tasks or distractions which you furnish them.

24) Always use truth, and when it can't support Sith objectives directly, alter the context.

25) Recast dialogs from honesty (as a dynamic process) to truth (a manipulatable static).

26) Inject irrationalities into the minds of those aware but unconscious to be controlled through good sounding non sequiturs.

27) Use displays of incomprehensible powers or ruthlessness to engineer an atmosphere of hatred and focus superseded and regulated by fear.

28) Use false flag terrorism to justify the creation of draconian policies and/or a martial law police state.

29) Advocate a policy that only the government should possess the ability to fight wars effectively (such as gun or bullet confiscation; and/or preventing more advanced weaponry from being owned by anyone other than the government) - thereby preventing any rebellion from being effective or even contemplated.

30) Regulate and control the necessities of life (food, air, water, power, shelter, travel, etc).

31) Engineer the dependency of the unconscious masses on the government.

32) Re-contextualize any opposition to the Sith empire as radical/extreme/terroristic.

33) Never allow the actual source of Sith power to be called into question -> the use of violence or threat of violence against the innocent.

34) Pass laws to make everything illegal, enforce the laws selectively, and/or provide for the licensing of any or all activities, so that those wishing to perform any action must first ask permission and pay for the privilege to engage in that activity. Ensure that such a political condition is still considered 'freedom' by the unconscious masses.

35) Make certain communications illegal, specifically metaphoric communication designed to rouse the unconscious into consciousness.

36) Require that all people routinely report in for a psychological evaluation, executing or turning to The Dark Side those who become conscious.

37) Positioning a large non-functional antenna in the center of every major city, declaring that it picks up the thoughts of all people, and insisting that any time a person thinks a negative thought that they report in and acknowledge it and get an evaluation - and that not reporting in will be detected and have more severe consequences.

38) Requiring that all people accept a regimen of chemical neurological manipulants.

39) Training the unconscious populations to spy on each other and turn in to the authorities any who become 'suspicious'.

40) Undermine all protections of the innocent, ultimately to the point where the unconscious masses will accept government sanctioned public executions without trial or even formal declaration of criminality.

The Book of Jedi

41) Desensitize the unconscious masses to all forms of horror brought against their fellows - make such images into entertainment.

42) Strictly regulate and control sexuality and pleasure and happiness.

43) Engineer atmospheres where the unconscious masses desperately crave status and public recognition and yet feel that getting it depends entirely upon the government; give it to those who model what is desired for that people to be like.

44) Instigate & finance both sides of a war, make the victor pay the debts of the loser.

45) Encourage all to become indebted to the institutions and establishments controlled by the Sith; extract interest and penalties; pour profits back into mechanisms of control and penalty enforcement and hard assets.

46) Change the meanings of all words that lead towards consciousness; words such as freedom, liberty, prosperity, and peace are always used in the context as the existing condition, no matter how unfree, restricted, impoverished, and warring the situation may be - the existing condition is always referred to with the most superlatively positive words possible.

47) Engineer a reduced life-span and degraded memory for the unconscious masses through food and chemical and air manipulations.

48) Ensure that conditions for the unconscious masses are changed slowly enough that few if any are able to remember the earlier conditions wherein existed greater freedom, liberty, prosperity, or international relations.  Kill those that remember and protest or otherwise indicate publicly that things are getting worse.

49) Engineer violent emotional reactions among the unconscious masses to the suggestion that any Sith standard actions are being executed in their area.

50) Use agent provocateurs to make it seem that associations engaged in non-violent protest are actually violent, terroristic, crazy, unstable, radical, delusional, dangerous, and/or that the masses should be protected from them.

51) In all ways known, regulate the thoughts and awareness of the unconscious masses; limit what ideas they are exposed to. Among countless others, this includes censorship as well as information overload - it includes regulation and domination of all mass media conduits - it includes refusal of peer reviewed journals to authorize research revealing any of the various Sith standard actions being executed in the past or present.

52) Demand that all people accept a computer active implant to be allowed to conduct business - the implant allows total surveillance of all people - noting their locations and business dealings; also allowing criminals to be located swiftly, preventing them from engaging in transactions, and if they leave the controlled area for the implant to release a lethal chemical toxin or a series of debilitating electroshocks and audio instructions to return to the controlled area.

53) Engineer a dialog of two voices, both of which secretly support the position desired by the Sith, but which never agree and are in desperate and violent debate against each other on points of little consequence - and then creating networks where it is fiercely believed that the future quality of life depends upon one of the two voices dominating the other - and at all times the public perception is made to be that the strength of the two voices are very nearly equally balanced.

54) Ensure that all consciousness inspiring metaphorical constructions are interpreted strictly as fiction or delusion or attempts at poetic expression of repressed confusion.

55) Embed within the culture to be enslaved, images of fame and glory gained through conquest and political manipulation - ensure that the masses of unconscious individual do not link fame and glory to honest efforts and in particular honest business.

56) Vilify as deception or greed or vice any exchange which is engaged in voluntarily and without the backing of an implied threat of violence or blackmail.

57) Create structures that appear identical in nature to that of the Jedi training system (a progression of levels wherein Jedi in training are able to associate most closely with a group of peers having a similar level of training) - and then use such organizations in support of overtly destructive or obviously covertly hostile objectives - and then vilify all organizations that use such structures so that those individuals who are stirred by The Force into consciousness will be emotionally repelled by first impressions of any organization capable of helping them rise to new heights.
